TAYLOR UNIVERSITY
UPLAND, INDIANA

FOREWORD

In 54 A. D., Paul preached this message: "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God unto salvation unto everyone that believeth,---" We, of Taylor, in 1954 A. D., are endeavoring to become servants like Paul and to say with him: "I am made all things to all men that I might by all means save some."

Coach "on duty."

To you, Coach, with appreciation for your role of professor, coach, friend, and leader; for your faith in our ability to attain; for your willingness to help in any situation; for your life that has given us the inspiration to "press toward the mark", to you --- our GEM.

Coach and Mrs. "O" with daughter Debbie at home with TV.

SO TEACH
"That which I see not teach thou me, ---"

Job 34:32

SO LEARN

"Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding."

Proverbs 4:7

SO LIVE

"O Lord, by these things men live, and in all these things is the life of my spirit: --- make me to live."
Isaiah 38:16

SO WALK

"Come ye, and let us walk in the light of the Lord."

Isaiah 2:5

SO RUN

"They which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize. So run, that ye may obtain."

1 Corinthians 9:24

SO SHINE

"The path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day."

Proverbs 4:18

ADMINISTRATION

"I will teach you the good and the right way: only fear the Lord, and serve him in truth with all your heart; for consider how great things he hath done for you."

I Samuel 13:24

SO TEACH. . .

"Can the blind lead the blind? Will they not both fall into the pit?" A teacher has before him those who wish to be enlightened--taught to live, to walk, to run. Before him lies the responsibility of translating the print in books into life and meaning. This task is a sacred one, for "everyone when he is fully taught will be like his teacher." The instructor must answer the call of the blind, "That which I see not, teach thou me."

EDUCATION AND PSYCHOLOGY

What are we looking for ?

An education major standing knee-deep in magazines mumbling a magic charm of "Bulletin board, project, alphabet book" -- a P. E. student shuffling through the closet for his tennis racquet -- a psychology major carefully conducting an experimental poll.

Where will we find them ?

Not just tangled in a maze of jumbled facts and chapter memorization, but actively studying folk like themselves by observation and discussion. For an understanding of human behavior is not only basic to this division of education and psychology, but to life.

LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE

Senior memories float back to PYGMALION and the BARRETT'S OF WIMPOLE STREET. Through the Division of Language and Literature a door has been opened -- a door that will lead into a world of appreciation for fine things -- a door that will open into friendships and understandings among people who appreciate these things, too. The grueling conjugation of every verb wedges an entrance into a world whose tongue is no longer foreign. Words, written or spoken, present an avenue to service. Another perspective has been reached as our teachers have sought to better equip us to be "made all things to all men."

PHILOSOPHY AND RELIGION

We have entered to learn. From New Testament Survey to Pro-Seminar, the Division of Religion and Philosophy stands as a bulwark of the adequacy of the Christian faith as a practical and intelligent interpretation of life. It is this department which will produce the most "flash-backs" in memories of a school "effectively Christian." We have sat at the feet of men of God as well as of the Master, Himself, as this department has made its influence felt in every phase of campus life. We have heard many, many times; others have never heard once. We have entered to learn. Let us depart to serve.

Mr. Joiner

Mr. Pixler

Mr. Thompson

The division of fine arts presents a scale of training running the gamut from amateur to professional. At any hour of the day the blare of a horn and peep of a flute from the Music Hall may indicate a future Mozart and Verdi -- or simply another practice hour completed. Art is a foreign subject to most of us until we have painfully produced that first dish, or poster or fine oil painting. Even those students not actively creating or producing art forms may gain inner satisfaction from the Lyceum series. The various arts offer a scale of training, understanding, and appreciation to build the harmony of a richer life.

Laid out before the student of the Division of Social Sciences is a map of the world. Scattered in every nook and corner of the map are his fellow men. They are people whom he desires to know and with whom he wants to live. Social Science can be the medium through which these people become alive to him as he sees their history, sociology, and economics unfold before him. This department opens to us another way which "by all means we might save some." Who can deny the value of our understandings of each other's needs and desires? A map of the world -- a world we must serve.

The natural science student holds a magnifying glass. With it he may survey a drop of pond water, twenty classified insects, or a chloroformed cat. He may enlarge his knowledge of mathematical formulas or chemical compounds. He may examine pots and pans, straight pins, or canned tomatoes. From a variety of experiences comes an increasing awareness of the basic order in the world about him. Four years spent in focusing this magnifying glass should produce a spark of useful knowledge to last till the day when we shall no longer "see through a glass, darkly."

SPIRITUAL LIFE

"Walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God; strengthened with all might according to his glorious power, unto all patience and longsuffering with joyfulness, giving thanks unto the Father . . ."

Colossians 1:10-12

SO WALK

From the stumbling steps of the baby to the stride of the athlete there is a change that can only occur by effort on the part of the one learning to walk. So it is in the Christian life as we become new creatures in Christ, we must follow closely the steps of our Leader if we would "walk and not be weary." Through following Christ's walk, we can become "examples of the believer in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity."

I Timothy 4:12

In Memoriam

Leland Meier

Lee walked among us this year with a spirit of love and of Christ that will be remembered. His path led him "to be with Christ which is far better."

Class prayer meetings to unite us.

Thursday has come to be a special day in our week for it is on this day that we unite in prayer and praise to God. We make our supplications known unto God who has promised to answer them in His name. In the dorm we share each others joys and burdens and in our class groups we seek God's guidance as we walk the pathway together.

Boys' dorm at prayer.

"He never rises high who has not learned to kneel."

Paths Of Submission

Girls' dorm at prayer.

Prayer is the secret to a close walk with our Lord. All of us receive strength and courage as we meet each Thursday evening to bring our needs before the throne of grace. The path of submission is but a road closer to strength, surrender, and service.

The Taylor family gathers to pray.

Rev. J. A. Bringdale

FALL REVIVAL

For many of us September 27 to October 4 were very significant days. Reverend Bringdale was God's servant for these days of strengthening. What a relief it is to us as we journey on our pathway to know there are times of strengthening for the Christian for we can drink of the water of life.

Paths Of Strengthening

SPRING REVIVAL

We continued on our paths of strengthening with the coming of Dr. DeWeerd to our Spring Revival. Our campus was moved by the power of the Holy Spirit in a miraculous way. Many met Christ in a real way, and others renewed vows that had been made to Him. These paths of strength lead us into paths of service.

"How shall they hear of the word of Jesus" was the theme around which our missionary convention was built challenging us to walk the path of surrender.

We pause from our days' occupation three times each week for our chapel services. Here it is that we hear God's word to us challenging us to full surrender, instructing us in the right paths, or showing us new horizons of labor. We "Enter With Reverence"; we leave to tread paths of surrender.

Gospel Teams

Freshman Trio: Barbara Benjamin, Joan Selleck, Nancy Cimbalo.

Ambassadors Quartet: John Terrell, Kenn Gangel, Tom Wells, Bill Yoder.

Kay Brenneman, Martha Hayden, Gail Brenneman.

Evangelaires, Coach Granitz, Joanne Dutro, Joyce Bresson, Marion Lucht, Shirley Bohleen, Jack Augustine.

Paths Of Service

Taylor's gospel teams share in one path of service to the surrounding communities and states where they sing, play, and speak for God's glory. These groups have a real ministry as ambassadors for Christ and representatives of the school. The Evangelaires group plans to travel for the school during the summer months, and the Ambassadors are hoping to carry the gospel to Germany.

Men's Chorus. ROW ONE: J. Wheeler, Director; D. Steiner, R. Gongwer, R. Raby, D. Pelton, K. Gangel. ROW TWO: H. Mel-lott, J. Terrell, A. Edstrom, J. Kerlin, T. Beers, L. Lindholm. ROW THREE: M. Murphy, N. Copley, W. Yoder, W. Wanvig, J. Thomas, W. Plumb.

Student Pastors

Another important path of service is that followed by the student pastors who are the leaders in churches in the surrounding area. As they journey through their years here at Taylor, they are consistently "holding forth the word of life."

"How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace . . ."

Romans 10:13

"Service is love in working clothes." Everyone can find a channel of interest through which to work. Junior T.U. prayer meeting has been started for the youngsters on campus. There is A Bible class in the school in Upland, groups go out on personal evangelism and visitation each week. There is a path of service for all.

A project as large as Youth Conference demands a lot of time and work from the students. The core cabinet is chosen soon after the close of one conference. They have the worry of speakers, dates, theme, and many other items. They are working right now for next year.

Time For Christ

Fall comes. The theme is decided on and announced. The next thing is the chorus contest. "Time for Christ" was the theme, and the Music Hall was filled with would-be musicians trying to get that last line.

Youth Conference came to our campus with piles of mattresses down the halls, bell hops meeting guests, meal lines stretching to the gym, and a general good feeling. The combination of the excellent speakers, the outstanding music of the Men's Chorus, Triple Trio, and other groups, the discussion groups, the devotional times in rooms, and the general fellowship helped many high school age young people to realize that now is the "Time For Christ".

SO LIVE

More things go into the well-rounded college student than mere book-learning can offer. Activities play a large part in the school living for they are life to the student. Living together, planning together, striving together, the students cultivate both friendships and leadership abilities. Talents are discovered; abilities are recognized. The student finds himself more ready to "be made all things to all men."

The present fades and memories take over in these pages. We see ourselves in the days of 1953-54 in our play times -- it was fun, wasn't it?

ATHLETICS

"Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus . . ."

Hebrews 12:1, 2.

SO RUN

Victory is the challenge of every athletic contest. From the faltering efforts of the "Campus Kids" to the smoothness of the Trojan teams, this challenge exists. In the Christian race, too, we are offered a prize. "So run that ye may obtain." Even as the spectators at a contest expect great things from the teams competing, so those who have run the Christian race before us trust us to be examples of the believer. The responsibility is ours--"To strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield."

Taylor University's Trojans under the coaching of Don Granitz ended the season with an even record of four tallies in each column to put them in a fourth place tie for the conference with a record of three and three.

Granitz started the season with a good nucleus of veterans: lineman, Frase, McCluskey, Holmskog, Cesler and Nate and Nelson Price; backfielders included Callan, Nutt, and Chernenko.

Several outstanding newcomers sparked the Taylor roster: Royer, Busch, and Key in the line; with Tarkington, Provan, and McGarvin in the backfield.

Coach did an excellent job in his second year of coaching at Taylor. The team began a surge forward last fall that should mark the beginning of several successful seasons for the men of Troy.

CENTRAL DOWNS TAYLOR, 18-6

The Trojans opened the season using the split-T against the Greyhounds. The rough defense sparked by Holmskog and the score made by Tarkington on a quarterback sneak were not enough to halt the Centralmen.

Stop, thief!

TROJANS TROUNCE ROSE POLY, 21-0

The Tarkington to Frase combination worked three times in this game to make Taylor dominate the scoring columns completely.

ANDERSON EDGES TAYLOR, 8-0

The Trojans missed three chances to score giving the Ravens a shut-out. The Taylormen lacked the offensive punch necessary.

GRANITZMEN ROUT MANCHESTER, 19-0

The Men of Troy came into their own against Manchester for their second shutout victory. Nutt broke through the line for the first TD; Callan twisted down the field for the second score; and Provan, a freshman, caught a pass to make the third tally.

Busch, the Headhunter

TAYLOR DEFEATS FRANKLIN, 19-0

The Trojans won their second conference victory against Franklin at their homecoming. The linemen were outstanding in their defensive play. Callan got two more TD's to his credit and Tarkington drove tenyards for a score.

KENTUCKY STATE DOWNS TAYLOR, 12-7

The Trojans traveled to Kentucky for this tilt. State gained and held their twelve point lead in the first half. During the second half Provan narrowed the margin by seven points, and another TD play was called back. Busch and Cesler were the outstanding linemen of the game.

EARLHAM EDGES TAYLOR, 18-13

By the end of the first half when Taylor had scored thirteen points, the homecoming crowds were confident of victory. The Earlham team came back playing inspired ball in the second half. Callan and Chernenko's crossing onto pay dirt did not add up to the Earlham three-time invasion.

TAYLOR UPSETS, HANOVER, 7-6

The fitting climax of the season came with Taylor's first victory over Hanover. The touchdown that was to mean victory was scored by Callan on a 70-yard run in the first period. Taylor's rough defense held the Panthers to only one TD.

Jackson gets tip from Manchester's Hoffman.

Led by the phenomenal scoring of Little School All-American Forrest Jackson, who became the twelfth player in all college basketball history to score more than 2,000 points in his career, the Taylor University cage squad finished in a three-way tie for second place in the closest hoop race in Hoosier Conference history. Manchester copped the championship bunting with a 9-3 loop mark. Taylor, Anderson, and Indiana Central each finished with an 8-4 record.

Three seniors, Jackson, and two dependable guards, Howard Habegger, and returning serviceman, Oral Ross carried the offensive load for the Trojans. The "Big Three" blistered the nets for 1,271 points during the season, led by Jackson, who scored over 600 for the second consecutive year, Ross with 460, and Habegger with 402.

Callan hits for two against Franklin.

Habegger shoots favorite jump shot in Great Lakes tilt.

North Park transfer, Art Edstrom, worked in well as pivot, while Freshmen, Ken Stark, Winston Folkers, and Dave Schwartz came along at the close of the season to form a nucleus for next year's Varsity. Senior forward Norm Holmskog displayed consistent defensive playing while Taylor's "spot" defensive star, Don Callan, forced several of the top conference scoring leaders to settle for a couple buckets.

Taylor started the season with early victories over Indiana Tech, Franklin, and Central State before bowing to Kentucky State at Hartford. A pepped-up Trojan squad smashed Indiana Central 88-74 to increase Taylor's supremacy over the Greyhounds to 7-1 over the past three seasons. A trip to Anderson before the Christmas holidays was rather disastrous with the Ravens coming out on the better end of a 93-75 score.

The Runner-Up trophy from the Sunshine Tourney in Portales, New Mexico, graces the award case in Maytag Gymnasium as the reward for toppling Abilene Christian 88-72, and Southwestern Oklahoma 65-63, in the Christmas tourney finale. Jackson and Habegger were selected for the All-Tourney team, with the "Deacon" setting a new tourney three-game scoring mark at 80 points, and a one game high with 36.

Ken Stark

Norm Holmskog

Win Folkers

Troy kept its century record going after the holidays by smashing over the 100 point mark against Northwestern Schools. Conference victories over Hanover and Manchester forged TU to the top of the standings, but a hot Indiana Central outfit moved them out. Overtime decisions over Earlham and Franklin emphasized the tightness of the conference from top to bottom.

Notice was served of the tremendous

TU scoring potential in the 92-66 drubbing of Wabash. However, an early February slump found Taylor dropping decisions to Great Lakes Navy, Wheaton, Anderson, and Hanover. Rebounding helped the Odlemen stop three conference foes, Franklin, Manchester, and Earlham, before losing a close 97-91 decision to the rugged Great Lakes Navy squad.

Ross makes a typical lay-up.

Edstrom battles for a rebound.

Taylor's overall season record stood at 14-10, a commendable record in view of the tough intersectional opposition the Trojans faced.

Forrest Jackson, for the third straight year was voted the Most Valuable Player, and Art Edstrom captured the Free Throw trophy for his sureness at the foul line.

The Taylor University B-team had a very successful season this year, compiling a 12 won and 4 lost record. They beat every team in the conference at least once. John Todd and Stan Reed led the team coached by Coach Oswalt. The other regulars were playmaker "Joe" Shisler, Jack Riggs, and "Hooks" True. Dave Clapp was an addition to the team first semester.

The best game of the year was played against Central avenging an earlier defeat. The Oswaltmen nipped the junior Greyhounds 58-46. The men lost four during the season, two of which were dropped to Taylor Alumni teams.

Baseball Fields Veteran Team

Taylor's baseball team finished third in the conference last year with an 8 won-4 lost record. Pitcher "Chico" Hernandez was voted the team's Most Valuable Player. Freshman "Nate" Price won the batting crown with a .383 average.

This year's team, led by catcher Norm Holmskog, is a veteran one. Other returning lettermen are infielders Art Edstrom, Jack Augustine, and Bob Stoker; outfielder Walt Chernenko; and pitchers Rod Liechty and Stan Reed. These, plus many newcomers, should help Coach Granitz have a winning season.

ROW ONE: C. Close, L. Blansett, T. Garver. ROW TWO: J. Dye, A. Klipfel, A. Havens, K. Stark. ROW THREE: Co-captain D. Bishir, Coach Oswalt, Co-captain H. Rose.

The Cross Country team coached by Chuck Oswalt finished third in the conference this year. They were led by freshman Lon Blansett who placed fourth in the conference, and Ken Stark who placed sixth. The harriers were undefeated in conference dual meets. Other members who made their share of points were Howard Rose, Duane Bishir, Forrest Jackson, and Howard Kilbreath.

Cross Country

Track

The Track team with many newcomers on the squad finished sixth in the conference last year. The thinclads should improve that position this year. The team has many returning men this year including John Terrell who tied the school record in the 220-yard dash. Chuck Oswalt is the team's coach.

ROW ONE: D. Kick, D. Howell, A. Kelley, H. Kilbreath. ROW TWO: J. Chapin, A. Havens, R. Cunningham, R. Housaman, K. Tousley, F. Stephens. ROW FOUR: H. Rose, J. Riggs, H. Rice, K. Stark.

Captain, F. Prinzing, D. Steiner, D. Pelton, Coach Oswalt, W. Folkers, J. Petroff.

Tennis

Prospects are looking up for the Taylor tennis-men, who finished in fifth place in the Hoosier Conference last year with wins over Franklin and Indiana Central for a 2-4 mark. Missing will be team captain and number one man, Don Jacobsen, but four lettermen return. These include Dave Pelton, Dick Steiner, John Petroff, and Wendell True. Newcomers Fred Prinzing, a transfer from Wheaton, and freshman Winston Folkers, will add balance to a veteran squad of Trojan netmen.

Six conference tilts are scheduled with Hoosier Conference teams, as the netmen attempt to improve their loop position. For the second consecutive year, no conference meet will be held, but each of the conference matches counts, and the team with the best record for the season will be declared HCC titlist.

The Trojanes coached by Miss Wingert and captained by Carol England had a good season dropping only three games to Earlham, Manchester, and a Ball State sorority team. The hoopsters downed Central in two encounters and avenged their Anderson defeat. Noticed at forward were Carol England, Dee Lieske, Sue Baker, Janet Neese, and Marlene Short. Freshman Martha Bailey did well at either position and guards were Joy Williamson and Barb Thamer.

Trojanes End Season With 8-3 Record

STUDENTS

"Wisdom is the principal thing;
therefore get wisdom; and with all thy getting get understanding."

Proverbs 4:7

SO LEARN

"If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him." Christ has not only given us a task to do, He has given us a means by which to do it. Learning is one of the principals of life; it is done constantly, both knowingly and unconsciously. Christ, the Master Teacher, sends us forth to teach after we have first learned at His feet. Christ challenges us to learn, to do, to shine for Him. He gives us the strength and the promise: "I will instruct thee and teach thee."

With the tap of a cane a new door is open. Graduation and the long-sought degree are just around June's corner, and now you can look back -- back to four brief years that flew by very quickly. Old friends seem more dear in these last hours before donning your scholastic gowns. Each minute is crowded with memories. There were those moments of fun when "TEN MORE DAYS TILL CHRISTMAS VACATION" echoed through fourth floor Magee -- the variety programs where the team of Meier, Morgan, and Townsend convulsed the crowd -- the flurry of formals at the banquets. The gay moments were balanced by the soberness of "comps" -- the decisions for next year -- the last session around the parlor piano. Now the Tower fades from view, but the challenge still remains -- So Live!

The magic title of "upperclassmen" labelled you at your arrival on campus. First effect of your junior talent was felt on that bright morning when the seniors came hobbling into chapel without their canes. For the Halloween party you transported three witches from the mystic world to provide entertainment. "Show Business" enchanted the audience with such stars as the jungle strong man, the Dolly sisters, and Count Yoder. The persuasive chant of "Popcorn, cokes -- only ten cents" charmed coins out of pockets at the basketball games. Deeper spiritual interests were reflected by your leadership in Ambassadors and Holiness League. By chance, effort, or unity you have climbed three rungs of the academic ladder -- one more remains.

So you were a sophomore! The 'green haze' was supposed to have lifted, but inevitably some of it crept out when the white and green sweaters made their first appearance, without being confiscated by nimble thieves. New responsibilities were yours this year: responsibilities that were ever before you in those words, "Let your light so shine." No longer were you a strange name or face; as an individual, you grew in friendships, studies, activities, and your walk with God. Yet you were part of a team, also -- a team that was ready to hang the glittering tinsel for the Christmas banquet or meet together before the throne of Grace to invoke God's blessing on your school. Your year has quickly come to an end, but this end is just another beginning, a new horizon.

Definition of a freshman class: you who graduated from a bad case of senior superiority to a good case of freshman panic, only to be metamorphosed until you became active in every phase of Taylor's life. At the Student-Faculty Reception you surprised your date by introducing him or her to the new professors. The victory light spotted you on the varsity football and basketball teams. In the fields of literature and music, you produced prize winners with outstanding poets and musicians. Notable was your participation in street meetings and other spiritual activities on campus. The germ of leadership has been well planted and cultivated. Watch it climb to success.

ADVERTISEMENTS

"Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works,
and glorify your Father which is in heaven."

Matthew 5:16

SO SHINE ---

"Neither do men light a candle and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house. Let your light so shine ---." Light gives illumination into darkness. "Men love darkness rather than light because their deeds are evil." Christ has commanded us to go into all the world as ambassadors to shine as lights. Our years at Taylor must bring us to the point where we can carry light to answer the cry of the lost: "We wait for light, but behold obscurity; for brightness, but we walk in darkness."
